ALLIANCE

A collaboration between two Stoke on Trent

Teaching schools to provide excellent CPD for

Recently Qualified Teachers

An RQT programme for teachers in their second or third year of teaching giving support and guidance for the further development of their teaching practice and career.

Six afternoon sessions with an emphasise on collaborative support from specialist leaders of education and other key staff across both Teaching School Alliances.

COVID-19 Our aim is to provide face-to face training with appropriate social distancing following Government guidelines. This will be continually re-assessed and if necessary training will take place online.
